Whereupon M^r Speaker with the rest of the members adjourned the house for an hour and go up to the Councill Chamber to attend his Ex^{cy} And M^r Speaker Presents to his Ex^{cy} the following Bills, Viz:

A Bill relating to the Comissary's Office.

A Bill for securing the Parochiall Library's.

A Bill for Speedy Justice for small Debts.

A Bill for keeping good Rules and Orders in the Porte of Annapolis.

A Bill for marking and clearing of Roades.

A Bill relating to Bayle to be taken by the Sherriffes in Actions of tresspass upon the Case.

A Bill for Relief of the Cred^{ts} and Legatees of Marke Cordea deceased &c.

A Bill for Assessing the Publique Levy.

To which his Ex^{cy} on his Ma^{ty}s behalfe was pleased to assent, and the same were Sealed with the Broad Seale of this Province.

After which the Severall addresses voted this Sessions being Signed by his Ex^{cy} his Ma^{ty}s hon^{ble} Council and the severall members of this house, His Ex^{cy} thus bespoake M^r Speaker and the rest of the members, viz:

That he was sorry that he had found so much difficulty in reclayming the Insolencies of severall persons in this province; that the making of good lawes was altogether ineffectuall unless they were duly put in Execution. Therefore since most parte of the house were Magistrates in their Severall Countys he Straitly charged them to put in Execution all the good lawes ag^t Sabbath breaking, Prophane Cursing and Swearing, Adultery and fornication &c.

Then his Ex^{cy} Prorogued them untill the 23^d of March next, Nevertheless he hoped there would be no occasion of their meeting so soon.
