

TOPICAL INDEX.

Baltimore and Guilford, Lords.

Address to the Assembly (1720), 3, 62; articles of instruction, 7, 8, 66; dissent to certain Acts of Assembly, 9, 10, 68; decision reserved on an Act regulating Officers' Fees, 10, 68.

Baltimore, Charles Calvert, 5th Lord, and Proprietary.

Address of the Upper House (1720), 54; address of the Lower House, 107; address to the Assembly (1721), 121, 200; dissent to certain Acts of Assembly, 122, 200; decision reserved on an Act regulating Officers' Fees, 123, 201; address of Upper House, 183; address of Lower House, 260, 263; address to the Assembly (1723), 487, 600; dissent to an Act of Assembly, 487, 602; his need of experienced advisers, 489, 601; instructions to the Governor concerning English statutes, 493, 602; address of the Lower House, 692.

Blakiston, Col. Nathaniel (agent of the Province in England).

Commended by the Proprietary, 4, 63; his report submitted, 5, 65; employment discontinued by Lower House, 171, 176, 179, 182, 246, 250, 253, 256; action opposed by Upper House, 175, 177, 180, 249, 251, 255; letter of Lower House to Lord Baltimore, 263; letter to Col. Blakiston, 264.

Bordley, Thomas.

Dismissed from the Council, 277; inquiry by Upper House, 283; reply of the Governor, 284; appears before Upper House, 286; his petition, and reply of Upper House, 299; address of the Upper House to the Governor, 301; elected to the Lower House, 344, 417; appointed on Committee of Laws, 421.

British Statutes (see Statute and Common Law of England).

Brooke, Thomas.

Censured by the Proprietary for hasty action in assuming government, 4, 62; reply of Upper House, 55; reply of Lower House, 107.

Burnett, William, Governor of New York (see Fortifications).

Calvert, Charles, Governor.

Address to the Assembly (1720), 4, 63; address of the Upper House, 35; address of the Lower House, 80; address at close of the Session, 57, 113; address to the Assembly (1721), 123, 202; address of the Upper House, 131; letter to the Lower House, 161; address of the Lower House, 208; address at close of Session, 190, 265; address to the Assembly (1721/2), 276, 308; address to the Upper House (see also Thomas Bordley), 277, 309; address of the Upper House, 282; his reply, 284; address of the Upper House, 301; his reply, 302; address of the Lower House, 313; his reply, 316; address at close of Session, 303, 331; address to the Assembly (1722), 336, 403; address of the Upper House, 339; address of the Lower House, 408; prorogation of the Assembly, 398, 472; address to the Assembly (1723), 485; allusions to his marriage, 486, 491; address of Upper House, 491; his reply, 492; address of the Lower House, 597; his reply, 598; address to the Assembly, 504; reply of Upper House, 525; reply of Lower House, 629; letter to Upper House, 583; address of Lower House, 584, 714; his reply, 585, 715; address at close of Session, 592, 724.

Chancellor.

Compensation for copy of laws sent to England, refused by Lower House, 180, 181, 185, 254, 255, 257; subsequently allowed, 186, 258; allowance continued, 430, 613, 636, 699.