

To the Honorable George Clinton,
President of the Senate of the United States of America.

The Subscribers, the Electors duly appointed by the State of Maryland, do hereby certify that on Wednesday the seventh day of December Inst. they met at the City of Annapolis, the place designated by the Law of the State of Maryland for the Electors of President and Vice President of the United States, in the part of the State of Maryland to meet to perform the trust reposed in them, and that they did then and there vote by distinct ballots, on which were named the persons voted for as President and the persons voted for as Vice President and on examination of the ballots it appeared that James Madison of the State of Virginia, as President of the United States of America, had nine votes, and George Clinton of the State of New York, as Vice President of the United States of America, had nine votes, Charles Cotesworth Pinckney of the State of South Carolina as President of the United States of America, had three votes, and Rufus King, of the State of New York, as Vice President of the United States of America, had two votes. The said persons are then and there returned by the Electors of the State of Maryland as having obtained the aforesaid number of votes. The evidence of the Authority under which the Subscribers have acted is hereto annexed.

Done, at the City of Annapolis, on Wednesday, the seventh day of December, in the year of our Lord One Thousand Eight Hundred and one, and of the Thirty third year of the Independence of the United States of America.

In witness whereof we have hereunto set our Hands, and affixed our Seals
