

Our Sentiments.

The Baltimore Sun in speaking of the lynching of the ravisher Cooper says: "One of the main reasons given for anticipating the processes of the law, as stated by citizens of the county, was that a new trial would subject Miss Gray to the painful ordeal of facing a jury with her wrongs a second time, and they thought she had been outraged enough."

Interesting Sermon.

The Rev. J. P. Bishop, of Greencastle, will preach at Pleasant Garden School House, near Maugansville, on Sunday morning, July 19th, at 10 o'clock. The public from the immediate and from other neighborhoods are cordially invited to attend, especially those who hold the doctrine of an Eternal Torment, as we are informed "they will receive great light on the subject."

Sale of Securities.

The following stocks and bonds were sold on Tuesday, by J. Frank Thomas, auctioneer, account of whom it may concern:

- Four $100 Jefferson County, W. Va., 5 per cent. Bonds, at $105.
