Colored Men Talk of Avenging the Lynching of Asbury Green.

PHILADELPHIA, May 12.—A dispatch from Centreville, Md., says: "The two hundred colored residents of the town of 1,400 inhabitants are talking of vengeance for the lynching of Asbury Green, colored, early this morning. They have no leaders, but are ready to do mischief. At 10 P. M. they are collected in crowds on the corners, and there will be little sleep in Centreville tonight. One hundred white citizens are patrolling the streets.
