

A SCHOOLGIRL MURDERED.

Found with Her Throat Cut Lying in a Stream of Water.

[Special Dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.]

FEDRALSBURG, MD., March 26.—The fourteen-year-old daughter of Jacob Dean, who lives near Harmony, Caroline county, left home for school this morning as usual. As she did not return at the accustomed hour her parents became alarmed about her and began to search for her. Late in the afternoon her body was found in a branch near home. Her throat had been cut in a most brutal manner. The neighborhood is thoroughly aroused and diligent search is being made for the perpetrator of the crime, but no one has yet been implicated.
