

Personal Mention.

Mr. John H. Zittle, editor of the Shepherdstown Independent, and one of the best known newspaper men in that section of the state, was in Frederick yesterday. Mr. Zittle only a few months ago established the Independent, an entirely new venture, and through merit and enterprise it has already become one of the best weekly publications in West Virginia. Mr. Zittle has a host of friends in this vicinity who wish him even greater success with his excellent paper than he has yet enjoyed.

The many friends of Mr. Henry Trail will be glad to hear that he is improved in health and is enjoying a pleasant visit to New York and elsewhere.

He Won't Testify Now.

James Bowens, who was lynched here Sunday morning, was summoned to appear before the grand jury in Hagerstown next Monday on the case in which a hearing was had before Justice Bitner, who held for court James Beard, who shot Richard E. Walden through the leg at Island Park. Bowens was the chief witness. He was on the docket there as "Jim Bowens."

To Be Dedicated to Good Templars

The handsome residence of Mr. J. L. Engelbrecht, south of Frederick, is to be dedicated to "Good Templary" and the memory of the owner's grandfather the late Jacob Engelbrecht, on Wednesday, December 11, 1895, the anniversary of his grandfather's birth. Rev. J. Burdette, G. C. T.; Mr. G. War Tyson, G. S., and others, will officiate.

After The Game.

Messrs. J. Roger Moberly, Chas. W. Ross and Frank Eichenbayer have left Frederick for North Carolina, where they will spend a few days hunting. The sportsmen took with them a pack of fine dogs and will doubtless create havoc among the feathery tribe that state.

Forty-Three Years Old

Mr. J. N. Zimmerman, of this city, brought to this office a sample of spruce, grown by him 43 years ago. The grain is of large size and has a pi well.

Poor digestion leads to nervous chronic dyspepsia and misery. The remedy is Hood's Serravallo's.
