

DAY BY DAY

By LOUIS AZRAEL

APPROVAL (SOTTO VOCE)

THE FIRST thing is this:

The Wicomico County jury questioned over a hundred witnesses and couldn't get enough information about the lynching of Matthew Williams to justify even one indictment.

I am greatly surprised and disappointed. The Wicomico countians have not nearly the ingenuity with which I had credited them.

I had fully expected them to bring in an indictment against Matthew Williams because he participated in the lynching.