

William Williams' Last Will & Testament

In the name of God, Amen! I William Williams, a free colored man of the City of Baltimore and State of Maryland, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but weak in body, reflecting on the uncertainty of life, do publish and declare this to be my last Will and Testament. I give and bequeath to my wife Mille all my property real, personal & mixed during her widowhood; and thereafter or at her death it is my wish that the said property be divided equally between my sons William & Edward their heirs and assigns for ever. And I do hereby appoint my wife Mille sole Executrix of this my last Will and Testament. It is also my desire that the use only of the personal property above devised be and continue during the widowhood of my said wife and at her death or marriage to vest in my two sons above mentioned. In testimony whereof I do hereby set my hand and affix my seal this twenty second day of May in the year of our Lord One thousand eight hundred and thirty five. -

William Williams

Signed, sealed, published and declared in the presence of us who have hereunto set our hands.
