

☞ A negro man was tried in the last Montgomery county (Md.) court, for attempting to poison the family of a Mr. Clements, found guilty and sentenced to the penitentiary for nine years and six months. Two negroes were also convicted for enticing slaves to leave their masters, and sentenced one for ten years and ten months, and the other for five years and five months in the penitentiary.