

CAROLINE COUNTY COURT ADJOURNED.—This court was in session last week, settling up old business, in anticipation of the new regime that will take place under the amended State constitution. Wm. H. Patchett, charged with burglary, verdict "not guilty." Jesse Gibbon, persuading negro John Stokes to abscond from his master, David Scotts, verdict "guilty." Gibbon was sentenced to the penitentiary until the first day of May, 1851.