

DEATH OF A CENTENARIAN.—Mr. Jas. Pippin, aged about 98 years, and the oldest man in Queen Anne's county, Md., died at his residence, near Bridgeboro, on Saturday. He has been blind and helpless for several years past, but previous to that was quite an active man. He served in the war of 1812, and has spent the most of his life in Queen Anne's county, having accumulated considerable property.
