

8th May 1841 William H Oxenham Swans and Saitth Some time in Savin, yesterday in the year 1838 he was at Byard Davis & George White lived with him George came home before sunrise, <sup>in the morning</sup> before Davis boys had gone to work and Davis undertook to whip him because he was not there sooner in the morning and George would not let him do it Davis ordered him away George invited on going to work and stay his year out Davis told him to leave the farm and if ever he caught him there again he would shoot him George called on him for a settlement Davis said Clear out you damned son of a bitch or he would shoot him
